

Dearest Nell.

August 30
1964

Time has played games with the summer. Visitors have filled warm afternoons and cool evenings. the rest of my hours have been fitted together like so many pieces of a jig-saw puzzle. Two days on the beach in Santa Cruz was our only escape. But, our nurse is so special. Only now the pictures begin to take shape in my mind's eye. You shall see into all the windows and

2. know why I am trying to make it all so comfortable before the year rushes us along. Oh, how I wish I could show it all to you!

My family arrives tomorrow for a week's visit - It is the final "social" effort of the summer. I shall sigh deeply afterward and bask in the peace of work - which for me is the best solace. Much as I have fought for my time together - so many friends have been here - such pleasant times we have had, picnics, walks, parties - but it is time now to prepare for autumn. My sweet girls greet you. They sit on Annes new/old bedstead and tell you how delicious they are. Our hearts are ever near you, our silence is full of love. Tell us of the school. We loved the festival - so rare and beautiful in your setting - xxoo Greta.
