

Friday with a party -
if you could be here
it would be complete.

John wanted to send you a book himself
so we shall sit back.
It is truly his offering
this time.

When shall we share in yours? How I
long to work with you on a book - even a book simply of you
and a collection of photographs. What would happen if we tried to rent The Octagon

Dearest Nell 1970 -

Just as the John Brook book comes out I must write and
simply say "hoshannah"
and bless - you and
all such happy, warm sounds. For you are a part of all of this.

Frederick is himself
again. The book is John's but the mid-
wife was Frederick
and he really did work to make it happen. He learned a lot and I'm so happy that we are going to celebrate next

house for spring vacation—or a month this summer—or when!?

We hope you are well—
and that all those around you are well.

With love always,
