Dearest Nell —

Just to tell you that the article is sent to Charles. On the mail today. When he reacts, I shall let you know. He will probably have to cut it so I will wait to send you the remets! It was such a loving task to do — so satisfied am I at the result ... that it seems to hang together — I hope so for us both?

Please be well. I admit to the rosy glasses, of course!!!

I told Charles that you would love to see him. I know that he goes to "escape" for Three months in the summer—( a house in Morocco!) so I'm not sure what happens...

These days are so full. I still don't know about the summer—but I am happy to be both places. And I know that we could do camp again next year should this one not work.

With great love as always—
Jeta
