Dear Mrs. Dorr:

Help . . . we have just run out of OF NIGHT AND DAY, and have several orders yet to fill. Our salesmen have really been on the job and, sorry to say, I wasn't alert to how fast they were moving.

I think 300 copies would be a good number to ship us this time and, if possible, please ship one box via special handling so that we won't hold up our present orders too long.

Thanks very much. Frederick sends his best wishes. . .

Cordially,

Jacqueline Bogue
