Dearest Nell —

How happy I am to know that you are again giving your spirit to a book - How right to be a child's book! I long to share in the secret - so I will tell you mine! I am taking inventory for a book also - in time - slowly - a book about women - about The inner journey - about the power of the Life-force (or a fairy godmother to show it to you - as you have to me) and of signs to illuminate the directions at crossroads. You are ever and forever a part of what I do - as it should be - and I emerge from old journals to write this as I read old letters and tears are joyously shed! Can there be a friendship except in literature, which feels as true as ours? Thank you for all that it means. Be healed and all love to you. Greta
