

which I am gathering together into a record book for her. I welcome this quiet time.
Ten Chris how I envy him and his time "at your knee". Mine was even as I am working alone, with your words and example ever echoing about me.
I shall write soon again - with more news of us all. Mith's work goes slowly but seems to be taking shape - I will write How I want to see you! Love, Greta

Dearest Nell -

this promises a small but loving space to write to you. I have been meaning to say a warm thank-you for The Lamen Ford book which came not long after the new year - Her most perfect "the little Book about God" was one of my childhood favorites. I was trying to conjure up her name in order to find it for Anne and lo! Came your Christmas Book which was my answer. It is a magical book which makes all of The Christmas Story come alive again. With The commercial emphasis at this season, I am especially grateful to have and hold it.

And more came; Your lovely letter. There is so much to talk of. I have more pictures that I wanted to make, to send — But now all of my work is covered over with The preparations that my heart and body must make before that longed-for day in February (early). I am so content These days to rest and read and think and turn to the happy work of cutting a block for Anne's sister or brother's birth announcement. I am not forsaking my photography! There are always more to spot and mount and then all those little ones of Anne
