

We are Coming!

Dearest Nen -

As spring begins and the blossoms open, our preparations seem relatively simple.

We begin to be very anxious to be on our way to you. The directions are in a special place and your letter is received. The situation in Valle de Bravo sounds ideal for us - and especially perfect for Anne. You are wonderful to do all this for us. We feel so comfortable, as though we were coming "home" to "our" cottage in the meadow.

We heard your voice over the radio, speaking about The Bare Feet. It was very special and excellent interview. I cannot tell you how happy we are to be coming. soon! We shall write en route. Our love as ever - Greta.
