

MITCHELL

Dear Nell,

The enclosed letter to Mr. Mariner is accurate. I am delighted to learn more of the process; we are sorting material. We have visited two excellent printers. They pronounce the half tones OK as far as they can tell. We'll now separate those which may have physical defects such as scratches and then make many proofs.

The project is ALIVE!

Bless us all,
Frederick

Love to your clerk, orderly and librarian, too -