

Birds on a Cherry Bough

Detail from a linen bedspread with crewel embroidery in colored wools, by Mary Breed of Breed's Hill American (Massachusetts), dated 1770

this is just a small
reminder of the light
you gave or give to us —

The candlestick is made in Berkeley by a friend, Donald Saxby, who used wood from a camphor tree in our garden.

Boundless love —
