Thursday,

Mother Darling,

All reports from Patie sound so good and we are awfully pleased. Thank goodness he's feeling and seeing lots better. I hope that Everyday now he jumps by leaps and bounds. I have wished so all along that we could have been near and keeped in some way.

Winnie has really enjoyed your being in Westport. She Couldn't do them. She paints beautifully now. I'd love to paint flowers also. But it is the color & effects one gets from Nature & not the shapes of flowers. Just at present I feel so tired & stupid. Please Heaven! she can get through with her Confirmation. Then I feel I'll be free. I'm glad Eleanor is home.

and the boys keep of it all the time. I must be more able to join you.

Mayo's cousins the Williams have moved to Texas. Earl is already at work. I know it isn't the dream job, but they will say I think Texas is wide open to any young man who wants to try.

We hope to send you some pictures soon. We have started taping some for the first time in months. I hope we get some good ones, but we'll send an anything as soon as it comes. Robbie seems to keep growing up so. He has changed, and it's hard to say how, except that he's older. He's like a grown man in many ways, & gets cleaner all the time. Bunches Susan
