Wednesday morn

Dorn darling,

How is the post tegis don't like - not by a long shot - but Come it must - Anyway the important thing is that we have something so extra special -

I wish I could paint a beautiful picture to tell & show you how lovely it always is when we are together - But I can't put the picture on Canvas - only in my heart & pray in yours -

It has been wonderful - Every moment - I thank you so for Everything.

But, always, most of all, my heart is overflowing with the joy of just being your child - & the joy of the fact that we all belong to Each other -

I love you -

Barby
