

④ More active parts in our Church.

Bobbie and Luzzy are growing more beautiful every day - I wish that we were near you so you could enjoy them, too.

Forgive me again for the upset - Next year all will be different - Please try to come to sea us this winter - Come for a long visit -

I love you and miss you,

Mary

Monday ①

Dear Nell -

Almost every day since our vacation I have tried to write you a letter - but each time words seem so inadequate to express the things that are in my heart. I did enjoy our visit with you, and it seemed as if the world had fallen on me when it ended with such disaster. I don't know why we had so much misunderstanding, but I hope that out of it all will come a whole new world for us. My meager vocabulary is so lacking in words to tell you just how much I

③ every day life. Someday, God willing, I will retire and move to Buck Hill to live in that Heavenly abode there.

There is no news to write about us. Dr. sure Barby has told you the day to day happenings. My work continues to keep me busy, but Dad & I seem to have a new understanding that makes everything so much better. Also, there is a new doctor here that takes a lot of the right emergency work, and that is really a help to me.

Barby has been busy with the Girl Scouts and the Community chest and we are taking even ② love you and need your counsel and your love. I have always felt so close to you - you have really taken my own mother's place - we must never let anything interfere with it.

Just believe me when I say that I'm sorry, and that we can start again with a new closeness that will be better than ever before.

And so glad that the Sweet Home is now complete, just as you have planned it. To me the Sweet Home means a haven a place and quiet and love and refuge where I know that I can always escape the trials and problems of
