Dear Don,

Just a note to tell you how happy I was, yesterday to hear from Alston the good news about you, how happy and well you are, and how things seem to be working fine at home.

Alston told me about the cat who got in your way, but I understand there is no trace of it now. How happy I am to know you are well!!

My affairs with the Home Office don't seem to be solved yet, and at times I feel disenchanted but I soon recover!

I am now getting ready for another concert in Colchester in aid of a school for AUTISTIC children. I am also trying to become a Ph.D. candidate at Cambridge....

I will write soon again.
Now, receive my love as always. Judy
