

most delightful

How I cherish the little garden book! It is like meeting you all over again – a renewing of faith in many things close to the soul. I love it, and you and being with you was so very much delight.

Thankyou, thankyou for the lovely photographs the note cards the delectable lunch, but especial thanks for dearest you.

Endless love

T.