I shall make another drawing and add the end of the barn and the mountains a bit more dabbedly, then it won't spoil the one you have.

Ian won't be able to see the pennies 'til Wednesday. He will write you.

Lawrence has been here again, for the weekend only. We all love him so and delight in his company. He was captivated with Mr. Shakespeare.

I really forgot to say that the stove is perfect! Thankyou and Thankyou. Seth will write his own thanks.

It is so beautiful here tonight, the sky is thick with stars and the delicious smell of damp fall leaves is all about. I have been brushing my beautiful Bethangy hair into a golden fan. Seth has been reading

Nell, most darling.

Your dear letter came after you called, I loved the picture as only you could know. The faces had the magic that is in beyond the pale in the moonlight. What precious magic it is, completely indescribable but entirely soul satisfying in both a sad and happy way.

It was so good to hear your voice and Robbie's ters.

I went down to Ted's on Friday. The Skippers wife, Marjorie Burgess, his brother and Ann and Diana, my half sisters were there. It was very moving and sweet in many ways. And I am filled with a timid happiness ~~[illegible]~~ in discovering I have two sisters. They are very dear, Diana especially. They seem so affectionate and so pleased to accept me as their sister. How strange it has all been. Nothing but the rare and beautiful in Skippers ways with me and the days that I knew him as a Father shine with a special light.

The package of pictures were awaiting me on Friday evening, and Pam there also Chanukgan. Sam & I are now ~~[illegible]~~ The one & Pam Ken and my reaction is very mixed Reproduced all all. Pam looks like a little pumpkin himself in some pictures he. There was something missing in that whole ~~[illegible]~~ Ship example. What was it? Maybe the rebbe didn't have enough ~~[illegible]~~ pictures to ~~[illegible]~~ ideal ~~[illegible]~~. Like pictures!
