The Bellevue Art Museum proudly presents an exhibition of photography given to the museum by Shedrich Williames in memory of his mother* Lula Moore Williames...

SHEDRICH WILLIAMES was born in Detroit, Michigan, June 25, 1934. He attended Portland State University. The late Wynn Bullock taught him the finer points of photography. At present he tutors privately and teaches photography in several local high schools as well as the Shado Gallery in Oregon City, Oregon. Shedrich also directs the Shado Gallery. He is the founder and current leader of "Focus 3000" a group of west coast fine art photographers.

* My Grandmother.

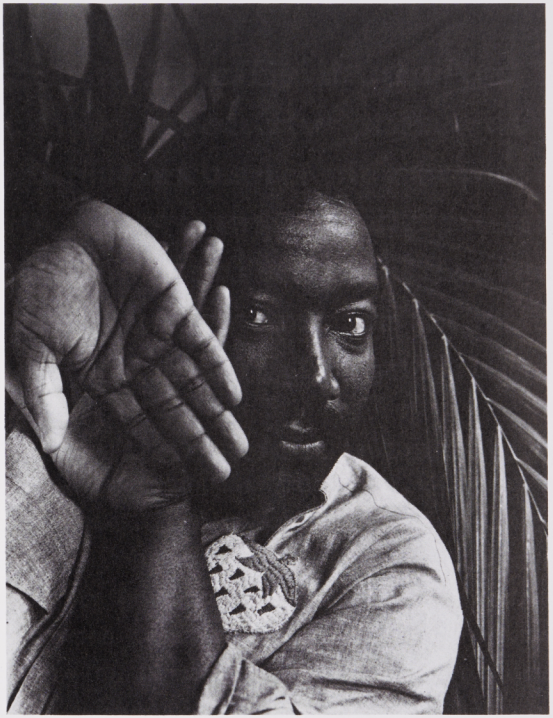

photo by Steve Gunn 1974

"I explore the imaginary images hidden in my world of creation"

Shedrick Williams