

November 21 - 1945

HOTEL NEW WESTON
MADISON AVENUE AT 50TH STREET
NEW YORK 22, N. Y.

Dearest -

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console - I shall not lose the sense of your beloved presence, right or day. It is an everlasting sign between us - and is not cut off by oceans, but rather all the more bound. God bless you dearest John - keep you warm and safe, keep you strong and well and at peace with yourself and others - bless the words you speak - the acts you do - the steps you take - guard you and bring you back to me. John my beloved. M.