to some thing great than ourselves - otherwise it is not the task in hand and am grateful beyond words for God's blessing on me. only if we have strength behind us.
 I do not know what I believe. The M.P.A. surely do have an answer - altho' Mayo feels that they have made capital out of events in that they use them to spread Buchananism much as Communists use theirs to spread Communism. We have long serious talks after the house is quietly asleep. I think you would respect each other.

I have been having a series of letters from Tom M. O'Grady - relative to their need to make more money ect. He is really mentally twisted, but because of it I cannot turn a deaf ear. I will help all I can. I am going to canvas the field here about selling "Tasha Tuckor clothes for children" - an idea I once had. which has commercial possibilities, if time & effort were put on it. God Bless you dearest.
 A trip to Europe looks good - but I don't imagine we shall ever again be free for

There are only new varieties

Monday.

John dearest.

The week-ends are especially busy as the mail does not come - but I am so happy to see Barry and little Susan blooming! At first we had trouble getting her to eat. et. cetera - et. cetera. All the mother and baby problems, all new and all the old. There may be "no news" but only the old. But strength does come through joy - just as surely as joy comes through strength.
 I praise the Lord constantly.

This begins my last week here.
 Three weeks to-morrow since I saw your face ~~turn~~ away and walk back to Grand Central Station. It was a lonely feeling to be speeding through the snowy winter night - away - away - away from you. Much faith we need - but oh, the reward is great.

answers. After he is gone to bed, and we sit before the fire we try to find if there is even one answer that we know. Mayo feels very strongly that the money the government is giving to the veterans is worse than wasted. Giving them first a course in one thing - then another - and then another. Anything rather than face a job squarely. He sees so much of it. He believes in military training, in keeping up our out-put of aeroplanes and military equipment - of subsidising aeroplane Companies instead of farmers. That our only argument which can convince Russia (or the rest of the world) is efficient, powerful and united army, navy and air force.

I talk to him about M.R.

A. - but can't convince him that Russia will ever change her policy because I do love children with such intensity of feeling - they seem the hope and promise of the world. All the arguments of diplomats, politicians, scientists, business people, college professors, realists, the idealists, the lefts and the rights, the Race rioters, the haters, the thinkers, the doers - the drones and the bees - the good and the bad - all together tend to neutralize each other, or to aggravate one another till there seems no hope except in the Cradle. Here is God's face turned to us - here is Love and the peace that passeth all understanding - joy - and the promise we seek. We must not fail them. I listen to Robbie's eternal questionings - Why? Why? - Why? I see his trusting eyes - he is so sure his Dornery and his Daddy & Mummy know all the
