Thank you for the lovely letters - but I would not hold out if it occurs impossible. I do not want to fly. -

I posed your questions from Science of Mind - "The Eternal Now". Do you remember one of my favorite Bible poem - in which he keeps repeating - "When do we exist?" It is probably one of the most difficult lessons to learn - but I am sure it is the key to the Kingdom of Heaven - unless we become as a little child. It is wonderful to have you feel it too - it will be most wonderful if we can achieve it.

My job now is clear cut and definite here, the help situation is far from adequate and not able to bring the harmony and peace which is necessary to convalescence - especially so when the nights are broken so often by a little wife who wants to eat her mincey. So let me put my full heart and head to this NOW - and when I come away it will be with the feeling "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

We have so much NOW - we cannot begrudge a few weeks - I don't know whether to send this air mail or not - all planes are grounded - it is ten above zero - a hard north wind and something icy - I wonder how this little

The weather here has been an all-time record for ice and snow - radio warning everyone to stay at home. The Hospital is working overtime - everything is spare-ice. My job is to keep things going smoothly inside - one week ago this was my long day - and all day's - and little Baby's. Now we can sing praises all the day - in spite of the weather.

Now about plans. Certainly I couldn't pull out from here now, not unless it were absolutely necessary. Your voice sounds so wonderfully "loney" that my chief worry about being home is over. I am proud of you too. Being the kind of person you are, it would be useless for me to explain why I feel I am needed here now - you would only think I was being over-worked which is not true. There is great marriage - that's all.

Now about the European plans.
Have you exhausted every agency that could get us on a Swedish ship - even a freighter? Surely we might be lucky like the Terrys if we keep following every lead.
Gin gorry we can't go on the Johnston line - perhaps she could suggest something. If we can't go there perhaps we had best go to England - rather than Antwerp - altho' I really don't care. All I want is for it to be prison - a trip memorable for joy shared - health, love, goodness - to bring them with us along with our gift boxes - this gift of ourselves.
Imagine the utter joy of a June moon on the Atlantic, with the dear kids to share it. I've always wanted to take a freighter for I think one gets more satisfaction which comes to me from (as Kay would say) "doing what comes naturally"! You will simply have to believe me when I say it is right and rewarding.

But if all goes well I will try for accommodation for a week from Thursday - that will mean Susan is two weeks old and two days - it will mean I have been here three weeks. I fully expected to be here four but if it seems best I will come home then. That would get me to N.Y. on Sat. morning - but I have been taking one day at a time which is the only way with a new baby in the house.

Your lack of any definite plan, and the contract with limited world - seem to dissipate any hope that you and I could have a little run-away - and rest. It is a
