

2. Who are probably in their seventies and both born and "raised" within a few miles. Some year I would love to come up when the sap is running and be here for the "sugaring off". They lead an idyllic farmers life - two cows - two pigs, chickens, garden ect but the sugar is their money.
They serve breakfast in their farm kitchen or on a veranda overlooking the blue horizons - of waffles & maple syrup - or old fashioned buckwheat cakes.

Friday.

PECKETT'S ON-SUGAR-HILL
FRANCONIA, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Dearest.

The bags are packed and we are ready to leave this peaceful room with its view of the eternal hills and the mellow light of sunshine through crimson maples. I shall try to keep it in my heart - which is the only way.

We went over yesterday to a maple sugar farm next to Peckett's where there is a dear Mr W. R. Dexter and his wife

All is so clean and sweet smelling and he yawns with you always with a twinkle in his bright blue eyes and a laugh on his pear brown face. They really are better than the sugar for sweetening your day.

Told him about your request for a corn grinder. He went immediately to his phone and called a neighbor.

Orrie Jesseman. Orrie wasn't home but Mrs Orrie said they had one which they no longer used — Told him to say you would write him — Mr.

Orrie Jesseman, Sugar Hill, N.H.

Tell him Mr. Dexter of H. Peck Farm sent you to him. I think you can get it and reasonably.

That is all I guess. It was good to hear your voice yesterday — am glad Rosamond is so well and hope things work out for her — glad everything goes well. I will probably go to Vermont Wed. or Thur. — It depends how I feel and what I find near Concord. I will let you know. Your faithful wife and loving h.
