

makes it all up with him I shall be happy for her sake but I can never have faith in him as a huma being - as a person one might hope from. No, I could believe in Hitler just.

Well here come my players - Grace & Kurt and five of the girls with their fresh and eager faces — what a joy to work with such.
I see the thing so clearly - ~~and~~ accomplished that I must continually fight against a tension within myself that so many details prevent it from becoming true. But it is becoming! Each day sees another step and I think a final one although one cannot ever be sure of this. We see our first shots tomorrow —

Needless to say I have high Hopes — but it is more than this - it is a deep conviction that we are saying something that is beautiful and good for the world to hear and see — and that it rings true.

Now if we have not run into new & unforeseen technical problems that is enough even for my highest hopes.

So here goes blessed — you are ever near me and a source of strength and confidence. I will tell you the final news as soon as we begin to see the rushes. Keep your fingers crossed — keep your faith John darling. I would be happy to have done this thing well — then we will play just as happily —

Best be the Tie that binds our hearts. n
