Darling one.

I have a little boy and a guinea pig sitting as close beside me as is possible to get — a very cozy feeling. Guinea pig is a great success! Oh the sweetness — how can one explain. There are no words — What is literature when you have a

How wonderful to hear you this morning "To a boy!" Linda and Herman should have boys — little cow-boys. Don't think about dates. Having only arrived and unpacked it is disconcerting to be planning my departure — but these the Euphrates - the Bedouins - the Moslems - we lost ourselves in all the pictures and almost forgot to go to bed. I get an ache to explore the lovely spots of the earth - and sometimes seems as if I could spend my life doing it - if "I could borrow another life afterwards to spend at home".

It is good to be where dreams are being dreamed and where work goes hand in hand. Like yours in some ways - yet in other ways so different - so things move on an endless path.

 Today is the 19th - leaving 9 days more in Feb. - a week from Friday.
 I should leave here March 5th that would be 2 weeks from today. I would arrive in London the sixth, say 7th, 8th there - leave the 9th for Dallas 10th getting back to N. Y. about the 13th. Now I will have to see about reservations. It may be a few days more or less but around that time.

Bob thinks the auto trip too long in mileage & short in time to warrant it - but offers me his car if I want - which I do not. I shall go by train.
 Do hope you can come!
