Always your wife.

Dearest.

The poem "To My Wife" deserves a special how and letter of thanks from the wife! I shall treasure it and thank you from my heart. Funny how little words can work a magic with the heart. If only we could stick closer to the heart we would never get lost.

Today is raining and cold but the out. doors still calls and my boots and rain coat are ready & waiting to go for a walk. I can't seem to get enough of it - in any weather.

What fun it will be to come to New York! I will get a train across from Concord. Bet will go on home from there. The trip is doing wonders for her too.

The Judge Stokes left yesterday - such dear
