Now you are saying words and I am listening - Plans and plans and plans. The Summer Pays before us - no, it pays upon us, Summer is here, and on its way out. The golden rod are budding - The locusts singing - The evenings and mornings cool. [Time slips in and out on the tide. I taste the taste while it is in my mouth - for soon it will be gone (and only the memory of Summer left and the smell). Always it eludes you - no matter how you try.

I am trying so hard not to accomplish things, but to let the thing be accomplished in me.
 It is far more important.

There is however the matter of a Shining Buick which needs to be thought about.
Will you think with me? Win & Bill expect to get their car next week - Thanks to Floyd - so we have the choice of getting the Buick back or of selling her for a new Ford.

Personally I am in favor of selling. The Buick is expensive to operate in every way - and not ideal on country roads.
Floyd thinks he could almost make an even deal - what do you think? Evidently it is still very difficult to get a new car - but he seems to think he can. I would love the thought of a little new Ford with no expense for a year. Will you talk with Floyd for me and see if we can't work out something?

The only sad thing about The Sweet House is that you are not here - but I think beyond that to the
