

BROWNIE

To my husband - Life is not so simple as this - but when one can be quiet enough for the stars to speak - one knows that it is far more simple than it seems. To-night the fire-light has danced to a lovely tune - and you and I danced with it to our heart's content.

I have been a long way - you will come home from a Republican caucus - while I have been on a real journey - and the real you were with me - Oh, it was such joy!
Good-night beloved. h.
