P.L.B. 1975

Dearest.

Olga Kaltenborn just called and asked us to dine with them to-morrow 7.45 - not dress.
Remembering that you said you were free I said yes - I will come in about six.

Now I leave you and go out to the Pitts House in the woods - with a full-moon looking on it's snowy stillness.
Something of you will always be there John dear Pius - and something of me too. Good night Bernard. 2.
