Dear John: Just a word to thank you for last night's happy hours and particularly for giving us the good glad news.
Well is one woman in a million. If I were to translate her into a flower I should have to imagine one that combined the delicate grace and exotic beauty of the orchid with the frank and joyous gaiety of a daisy laughing and swinging in the sun.
She deserves all you can give her and that's a lot! — So Olga and I rejoice in your deserved happiness — a bit of which we hope to share. Sincerely H.V. Kaltenborn
