Re: Estate of John V. N. Dorr

Dear Mrs. Dorr:-

Mr. Goldthwaite H. Dorr informed me over the telephone this morning that he has reviewed with you generally the terms of Dr. Dorr's will and your rights in his estate, and that you are willing to waive notice of the application of the executors for admission of the will to probate and to consent to the probate of the will.

You will find herewith a copy of the will dated February 28, 1959, and codicil thereto dated June 22, 1961, and the original application of the executors to which is attached a waiver of notice and consent to probate which has already been signed by Hugh C. McMillan and Shirley McMillan Punzelt who, with you and Antoinette Dorr Oakes who signs as one of the executors, are the only persons who have any right to notice under our practice.

It will expedite the admission of the will to probate, the appointment of the executors, and getting the business of the estate under way, if you will sign the waiver of notice and consent on the line under which your name appears and return it to us in the stamped addressed envelope which is enclosed.

If you have any question whatever with respect to this, please call me on the telephone.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Frederick Lovejoy Jr.
