Happy Valentine's Day

The book is almost completed; ingredients are on the editor's desk now and being cut to fit into a book of 208 pages.

The best printer is being sought and the schedule for publication is tight.

Publication date:

Museum opening: September 13, 1979

At the International Center of Photography
1130 Fifth Avenue at 94th Street
New York, NY
Cornell Capa Director

I will write soon about the show. Plans are being made for the opening event. Do you have any suggestions? If you can come, how would you like it to be? I will send a letter of specific questions shortly, and must have all ideas by March 1st at the latest.

If you have any museums where you would like to have the show travel during 1980-81 please send me name and address and curator of photography (if you know it) Right Away. The International Exhibitions Foundation is making arrangements to travel the show. There are already a number of bookings.

If you haven't done so please send the release letter (to me) to Viking-Penguin c/o Barbara Burn 625 Madison Avenue, New York, NY 10022

Every day counts now as the editor and designer (both of whom are young women who are very enthusiastic about Recollections!) help me shape the book to your expectations.

Call me collect if you have any questions.

Thank you for all your patience and cooperation.

Love- Greta —
