My dear Nell:

Just a quick note to thank you from the bottom of my heart for remembering to send me the little book, which arrived this morning but which I shall not open until I get home.

Herewith is a copy of my letter to poor old Engel. It shouldn't take very long for the dummy and plates to arrive.

I intend to call Bloomenthal this afternoon to make sure of our meeting on Friday.

It was a great pleasure to have you visit us the other day. Jackie and I are still enjoying your delicious bread.

As ever.

Sincerely yours,

Burton Cumming
