Dear Nell:

Just got an awfully nice letter from Joe Blumenthal describing his meeting with you and specifying the paper for the dummies. These will be prepared as fast as we can get Russell Rutter to do them.

Then yesterday, Peter Convente's estimate arrived. I'm sending a copy along to you and also a Xerox of his letter.

I'm off for a few day's cruise, then down to Washington till the 7th. But I'll call as soon as I get back for it's time I came up to see you.

All of the best.

As ever,

Burton Cumming

Dear Burton:

Enclosed please find our estimate for Nell Dorr's new book "Of Night and Day". I have enclosed a duplicate which you may want to send on to her.

You will note that our quote is based on the same paper we used on "The Bare Feet". This portion of the estimate could change especially if she wanted it printed on the same paper as we use for our letterhead.

As soon as we have a chance I will do the proving she has asked for.

Very truly yours,

PETER A. CONVENTE
