My dear Nell:

A short note to thank you rather in absentia for your kindness and hospitality to the little crew from N.Y.G.S. which arrived at your doorstep last Wednesday in the rain.

I have spoken to everyone involved -- or rather they have spoken to me. Tony and his helper on the truck were most appreciative of your openhanded hospitality. Jacob D. was greatly pleased by all the material you gave him for his article. And Jean enjoyed everything, especially being able to see you in your true surroundings.

Everyone spoke of what a beautiful place you have, and how it is a reflection of your own life and work. I'm sorry I couldn't make the trip too, but I really needed that day to help Jay get off to his summer job.

Love from us both,

B.
