I now have the final information of the size and page number on which the Nell Dorr photograph will be reproduced. It will be used in Book 8 on Page 490 at $\frac{1}{4}$ page size. The ASMP rate for this size is \$75, so if you would kindly send your invoice, making sure you state on the invoice that it is for one-time use in Book 8 of the Ginn and Company literature series this would be helpful. Also, please state the page number and size.

However, please send it directly to me at my home address.

Thanking you, and looking forward to your invoice, I am,

Sincerely yours,

P.S. I will return the print to you just as soon as the printer has finished with it.
