Dear Ms. Dorr,

I spoke to you this morning regarding use of the photograph "In a Blue Moon" 1929 (a curly-headed blond child perching on the branches of a tree in the Florida Keys) in PSYCHOTHERAPY AND SOCIAL SCIENCE REVIEW. Enclosed please find a few recent copies of the publication.

Unfortunately, I've been advised by the powers-that-be that $35 is of necessity our upper limit for use of a photograph. (I just started working here last week.) I'd hate not to be able to use this wonderful photograph (it's to illustrate a book by Warren Gaddaillie, M.D. called The Cycies of Sex), but of course, if $50 is your set fee, I realize we won't be able to do so.

If you're unable to meet our terms, could you please just send me a brief note to that effect? At any rate, I hope you derive some pleasure and information from our little magazine.

Thanks very much for your time. I look forward to hearing from you, either way.

Sincerely,

Nancy Ludmerer
