

Dear Jim Becket
and Jacques Houe.

Just how does one address the High Commissioner of the United Nations? I have never had ~~this honor before~~ — and since I wish my answer to be something more than a formal acceptance, I am addressing it to you both personally.

The honor is greater than my gift of speech. It touches closer to the heart. ~~The project~~ - the actual book - is from the heart and must speak to the heart of the world.

I am indeed proud and humble to be a part of this ^{great} voice. Thank you thank
