

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

26th July, 1954

Dear Mrs. Dorr,

The Queen is much touched by your kind thought in sending her a specially inscribed copy of your book "Mother and Child" and by the generous terms of the inscription itself.

Her Majesty is fascinated by these varied photographs and is delighted to accept this copy of your book, for which I am commanded to send you her most sincere thanks.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ Edward Ford

Mrs. John Dorr

COPY

CONFIDENTIAL

The inscription in the book to Her Majesty read:

To Her Majesty
Queen Elizabeth

We kneel in love before you and open our hearts for you to read the common language of Mother and Child.
We bless and honor your name among us.

Faithfully,

July 20, 1954

Nell Dorr
