Dear Mrs. Dorr:

Please forgive me for being so slow about writing — just plain summer lethargy I guess. I do so appreciate your beautiful book — both Jill and I will enjoy it for many years. The enclosed note was mailed c/o Museum of Modern Art + returned to us. It took until today to find your address. Vacation time does complicate business.

Please let me know when you will be in the city and free to join me for lunch. I thoroughly enjoyed our last visit and would like an encore.

Sincerely

Charlotte Armstrong
