Dear John:

Since I do not know exactly what the address of The Dorr Foundation is, I am sending you my check for your wife's wonderful book.

This is a most delicate and poetic book and in a way, it is a long book because every time you go through it, you see things you had missed before.

I am glad you will have some money for the Rutgers Fund this year, and I would like to talk with you about it further, but I do not wish to mix business with pleasure, and this book is sure pleasure.

Cordially,

Charlie
