Dear Mr. Dorr:

I was just leaving the Club, to catch a plane, when the book "Mother and Child" arrived. I glanced hurriedly thru it, but time did not allow me to study it or read the enclosed short story and comments of the book, as planes will not wait. However, it is a pleasure that is awaiting me when I return to San Francisco, and it will give me much happiness to meet you and Mrs. Dorr when you come to California in November. I will be greatly honored if Mrs. Dorr will autograph the book, which I will add to my collection of artistic treasures. Also I would like to autograph for you the photograph of the painting I made of Mr. Oliver.

With kindest regards and looking forward to seeing you both, I am

Sincerely,
arthur Cahill
