Dear Mr. Dorn,

Thank you for your bright note and the enclosures. The publicity releases on Mother and Child are impressive. I showed them to a friend who promptly ordered a copy of the book to give to his sixteen-year-old daughter, a lovely present, I think, for a girl on the threshold of womanhood. Of course, I, too, shall see the book.

Sidney Kirkpatrick and I have spoken over the telephone. We shall meet before long.

For me, our encounter was a happy event.

Sincerely,
(Miss) Winifred Carroll
