Dear Nell and Thus:—

October, with its sunshine and warm days, has come and almost gone and your book, Nell, has made October Powelick and has given the days I have recently spent with my grandchildren deeper and more lasting significance.

What magic you create with your camera! And what a story you tell of life, of joy, of sorrow in the picture poems you have created.

We saw your book at the Rushmore's and Madison and at once fell at home there.

Again Bob and I are deeply in your debt for sending us your fabulous book and we appreciate it and your thought of us deeply.

With gratitude

Bob and Nathalie Clothier
