Dear John and Nell G H 3rd
Denver +
Gold Spr.

"Mother And Child" has been a big success out here. I have one outlet for its sale lined up if you will let them have some copies on consignment. The director of the Denver Art Museum is agreed with me that it is just the type of book they should like to sell at the museum bookstore. If you will agree to consigning some volumes they would like to place an initial order for ten copies.
What is your wholesale price per issue? With this information I shall be able to do more promotion at this end. Is there a chance of my getting a commission on books sold? Upon receiving the necessary information I shall see about outlets in Boulder and Colorado Springs. The sooner I can have some volumes the sooner I can take action. There is a definite order for one volume which is wanted before May first.

Denver seems to be out of the recession though not strongly. The poor stock market has had a number of people tightening up. However, I feel that we had the worst here in January and February I have been so busy in the my business that I haven't yet order the Aspen Wood Bells for you. As things are progressing I may be sent to Colorado Springs to manage the store there. At the moment I am manager of the rug cleaning business.
Thank you for the Don-Olive diary and calendar.
Hope you both can come out here.
Love, J.
