My dear Mr. Dudley:

As a member of the Farm Bureau Association, I enjoyed your article in the January 1955 number of THE CONNECTICUT FARMER. My own farming is mixed with a variety of other things, but I have raised some White Face and Angus cattle to sell to my neighbors at Westport.

I have been also interested in one or two other things not quite in the farming line. I am sending you herewith a short report on work in which I have been interested with reference to highway safety, as well as a brochure on a book which my wife got out last fall. I think both will interest you.

Sincerely,

John V. N. Dorr
