My dear Entat:

Will you please express to your wife and accept from Mrs. Dorr and myself congratulations on the arrival of your daughter.

We were both delighted to get your announcement and my wife is taking much pleasure in sending you for her a copy of her book "Mother and Child".

We have often spoken of the most pleasant contact we had the last time we were in Paris. Please give her and accept yourself our warmest wishes.

Sincerely,

John V.N. Dorr
