Dear Mrs. Dorr,

We presume the Gevaert Company of America Inc. New York, sent you a copy of our 1957 calendar.

One of your very beautiful pictures was reproduced in it. You will notice that the authors' names are not mentioned. We did this for the first time in the 1957 calendar for reasons of policy. It is not certain that we shall continue to do so.

The negatives of most of the pictures belong to us. In your case,however, we feel we owe you a word of apology for not making the usual courtesy acknowledgement. Please be good enough to overlook this inadvertency.

We are sending you separately a further three copies of our 1957 agenda.

We seize this opportunity to tell you how much we admire your very fine photographic work. The undersigned remembers vividly your book "Mother and Child". Mr. Craeybeckx, Chief Editor of Photorama, was kind enough to lend it to him about a year ago. It is a remarkable interpretation of the ineffable relations between mother and child and of the world of childhood itself. R.L. Stevenson would have loved it.

Yours very truly,

P.A. Hoelen
