Dear Mary:

I am sending you under separate cover Nell's new book, "Mother and Child," published by Harpers, publication date September 22, 1954. I note on the list of books distributed by Harpers for review does not include any Denver paper but feel that the interest of the Denver people is such that a review there might be very useful. Would it be asking too much of you to show this to the proper person and if another copy was desired for the reviewer, we should be glad to send it.

Nell has given the book to The Dorr Foundation which feels, as many others who have seen it abroad, that it should carry a message around the world as to the spiritual side of America.

Please congratulate your daughter on her wedding. I hope to meet the young couple some day.

You will be interested to know that one of Rose Alber's pictures has been selected for permanent exhibit at the Santa Barbara Museum and she takes charge of the Art Department at the very fine Dwight School at Englewood, New Jersey, beginning this month. She is having an exhibit at Rutgers this fall.

Our best to all of you.

Affectionately,

John V. N. Dorr
