New York 25, New York

Dear Eleanor:

I have your letter of the 23rd and note that you showed the book to two hospitals and they thought it somewhat expensive but very good.

I would say that the additional expense of buying a book compared to that of producing a baby makes it a very small percentage addition and may be an ungodly help to the mother in many times of stress. You would be amazed at the many stories we get from different mothers in connection with having the book.

I enclose herewith copy of a letter I have taken the liberty to write Mrs. Phillip Lounsbury, 125 Northfield Avenue, West Orange, in regard to it thinking it may interest her.

We shall try to see the Japanese picture you mention. I have loved their art very greatly.

My daughter is on the Board at Lennox Hospital, I think, but leans backward very seriously against boosting anything that comes from a relative. Personally I think it is foolish.

Sincerely,

John V. N. Dorr
