New York, New York

Dear Mr. Jungman:

I am sending you under separate cover my wife's book, "Mother and Child," together with some comments on it and a story of her, together with a bill for same. This was published by Harper & Brothers and financed by The Dorr Foundation. I hope this will induce you to come over with Jess Van Law to Westport some time and bring the book for my wife's autograph.

Incidentally, if your wife likes the book and it interests any of her friends, it can be bought from 99 Park Avenue. I hope you will kick in here some time. It is very convenient for Grand Central.

We certainly had an interesting dinner. With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

John V. N. Dorr

Under separate cover: "Mother and Child," brochure, comments and County Fair reprint
