Dear Mrs. Dorr,

I want to express my sincere thanks for the copy of "Mother and Child" which you sent me. Your photographs are wonderful and such a perfect way to express the intangible bond that links a mother to her child.

I hope that my teaching career will be as successful as the one in whose memory the honor that I have received is given. My field is languages and somehow the use of words seems to be the most perfect way to create bonds of understanding between student and teacher. I of course regard motherhood as the ultimate goal of any woman's life and, God willing, I hope to fulfill myself in this way in the not too distant future. I am going to be married on June 11th but I will be teaching for quite a while since my fiancé is a law school student. After we are settled I hope to relinquish my motherhood as a teacher for true motherhood.

Thank you again.

Sincerely yours,

Ellen Kanowith
