Dear Miss Everhard:

I am grateful for your letter of January 24, and especially grateful for your kindness in sending me a copy of Mrs. Dorr's book, Mother and Child. It is a beautiful thing, and I know it must have given her much pleasure in the preparation.

I am confident that I can speak with certainty for Mr. Olsson and Mrs. Briggs, no less than for myself: We want prints solely for our own personal enjoyment, for hanging in our own homes. I know there is no thought of doing anything else with them.

My guess would be, though here I cannot speak with certainty, that we would like 11x14 prints, which then could be mounted 16x20 and framed. I think a matte surface would be best. If Mrs. Dorr could let us have a price also on the smaller 8x10 size, I would appreciate that, and would forward the information along at once to Mr. Olsson and Mrs. Briggs.

Thank you so much for the interest you have taken in our inquiry from Virginia. We will look forward to hearing from you.

Cordially yours,

James J. Kilpatrick

P.S. - Looked carefully at the book over the weekend. It is a wonderfully heart-warming, almost a heart-breaking volume.
